OFFICAL OPENING OF ROSE ROOM

Wellsprings for Women is excited to announce the official opening of its new space Rose room by Julian Hill MP on the 26th of June 2019 at 1pm.

“The new space will house our computer lab and will be used to run additional programs at Wellsprings on financial literacy, business skills and entrepreneurialship” said Dalal Smiley, Wellsprings for Women CEO

The project to build the new room and additional access toilet started more than two years ago and Wellsprings is pleased about the funding support it first received from the Federal Government following a recommendation from Federal MP Julian Hill.

“Coinciding with the official opening, we will also be launching our new program on Digital Literacy for Seniors funded by Be Connected and will have some virtual games demonstration on the day”

“We called the new space Rose Room in honour of the memory of Rose Elias, our colleague who passed away in March this year and who contributed to Wellsprings’ growth and achievements in helping the most disadvantaged women in our community”.

“Thanks to the Australian Federal Government, Gandel Philanthropy, Jack Brockhoff Foundation, Victorian Government and CCI Giving for their respective funding which helped us to realise our vision and mission in providing the women with a new space that will improve their educational experience and engagement in Wellsprings courses.”
